The Association of Science and Technology Centers (ASTC) is a professional membership organization with a vision of increased understanding of—and engagement with—science and technology among all people and a mission to champion and support science and technology centers and museums.

Founded in 1973, ASTC champions and supports more than 500 science centers, technology museums, natural history museums, children’s museums, and other STEM-rich, place-based institutions, such as nature centers, aquariums, planetariums, zoos, and botanical gardens throughout North America and in nearly 50 countries—as well as nearly 200 other organizations that share an interest in science learning and engagement. ASTC is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit educational organization.

ASTC works to advance our vision and support our members through the implementation of its strategic direction. ASTC is building capacity across the organization towards its future efforts to:

- Champion and support science engagement, by elevating the work of science and technology centers and museums, forging new collaborations across the science-engagement ecosystem, and investing in communications and advocacy.
- Set course together for new frontiers, by supporting ASTC members to prepare and lead with their communities, act on market and societal trends, and embrace effective approaches that advance equitable engagement in science and technology.
- Support and connect ASTC members, by facilitating learning, catalyzing shared efforts, sharing data, and cultivating leadership and skills across the science-center workforce.

To support ASTC in its daily operations, ASTC is seeking Coordinator of Administration.
SCOPE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Coordinator of Administration will work closely with the Finance and Administration team, the Chief of Staff, and the President and CEO to execute various operations functions of the organization. They will provide support for the organization’s daily and ongoing operational, financial, and human-resources processes. They will also maintain relationships with various vendors. They will provide general operational support to various ASTC projects and programs on an as-needed basis.

Financial and Human-Resources Processes and Tasks (30%)
- Maintain an accounting and payroll calendar for reference by staff, and send reminders to staff of upcoming deadlines, such as for submission of timesheets, expense reports, invoices, etc.
- Ensure that all documents are prepared for the onboarding of new hires, set up email accounts and access to online systems, and coordinate collection of key information from new hires
- Lead the in-person and remote onboarding of new hires including office tour, setting up office space, helping with email and voicemail setup
- Coordinate external printing to ensure that all staff receive business cards and other branded material
- Respond to and sort emails sent to ASTC’s accounting/billing inbox
- Retrieve mail, and prepare weekly check deposit log for Staff Accountant
- Track all payment requests, ensure that all payment requests have correct documentation, and work with other members of the Finance team to ensure that all requests are filed in the correct folders and get paid each cycle
- Work with the Finance team to sort and organize all finance documents and folders, both digital and physical

Operations and Office-Management Responsibilities (30%)
- Ensure that all needed office supplies are purchased, including paper supplies, ink supplies, kitchen supplies, envelopes etc.
- Maintain the phone systems, copy machine, and printers and ensure that all office equipment is functioning, serving as the staff liaison to office-equipment vendors
- Work with vendors to ensure that all systems are maintained and functioning, including updating staff lists in the printer and maintaining an up-to-date record and list of vendors and passwords
- Manage various information-technology (IT) accounts and vendors including, Zoom, GoToWebinar, SurveyMonkey, Adobe etc., and coordinate with Director of Finance, Chief of Staff, and ASTC’s external IT support vendor on staff IT needs, upgrades, or cybersecurity practices
- With the Chief of Staff, ensure that the organization’s (and all staff members’) needs are met in terms of software, hardware, furniture, etc., and track open needs that are not quickly resolved
- Support staff in mail processes, including preparing, sending, and receiving mail and packages
- Maintain and update (as needed), in collaboration with the operations and full staff team, the office operations manual that details all processes and ensures that the processes align with ASTC’s policies. Communicate changes to the manual to staff as needed

Administrative Support for the Office of the CEO (20%)

- Serve as primary scheduler for the President and CEO in coordination with the Chief of Staff, including:
  - Keeping the President and CEO’s calendar up to date at all times
  - Scheduling meetings, calls, and videoconferences with internal staff and external parties, including with senior executives at ASTC member institutions, partner organizations, government agencies, and more
- With the Chief of Staff, ensuring that the President and CEO is prepared for all meetings, including collecting background documents and other materials in advance of the meeting
- Prior to any planned travel, work with the Chief of Staff to generate travel authorizations and book/manage travel plans and event/conference registration on behalf of the CEO
- Process expense reimbursements, monthly credit card reports, and other financial documents on behalf of the CEO
- Maintain documentation of all financial and operational forms filed
- Organize office-wide celebrations and activities

Program and Project Support (15%)

- Assist with operational aspects of large programs and projects, such as:
  - Monitoring communications from partners and program participants
  - Tracking applications, awards, and reports related to funding ASTC provides as a part of its projects
  - Processing payment requests related to expenditure of project funds

Responsibilities Shared by All ASTC Team Members (5%)

- Actively contribute to member engagement, satisfaction, and retention
- Attend, provide staff support for, and contribute to the success of ASTC’s Annual Conference
- Attend professional meetings and conferences as assigned to promote ASTC collaborations, programs, and activities
- Other duties as assigned

EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS REQUIRED

The ideal candidate will be driven by ASTC’s mission, team culture, and strategic direction. They will have good attention to detail, strong interpersonal skills, trustworthiness, discretion, and willingness to support a broader team.

Skills that will set you up to succeed in the role:

- Knowledge of the administrative, operational, or office-management aspects of a small organization

- A commitment to diversity and inclusion, demonstrated by inviting, including, valuing, and supporting diverse perspectives and ideas, as further described below
- An interest in, or experience with, issues associated with science and technology, including informal science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) learning, science communication, and public engagement in science, or with museum practice
- Commitment to continual learning and professional development
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Sound judgment and ability to maintain the confidentiality and discretion necessary in handling sensitive financial and human-resources information
- Ability to quickly and calmly resolve problems

ASTC COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY, ACCESSIBILITY, INCLUSION, AND EQUITY

The Association of Science and Technology Centers (ASTC) is committed to advancing equity and social justice as foundational and essential values in all of our work. These values are essential to the practice of science, technology, and innovation which require seeking out and engaging a diversity of peoples, ideas, perspectives, life experiences, disciplines, knowledge systems, and approaches. ASTC values, and celebrates contributions, discoveries, and novel solutions, regardless of their source. When all people are welcomed, respected, and included in our human pursuits, and when everyone has access and opportunity to pursue their aspirations, and when all people can participate fully and actively in creating and building the future, our association, members, and global society will be more equitable, prosperous, just, and resilient. We will bring these values to bear across our work, and we will seek teammates, collaborators, board and committee members, and partners who will work to advance diversity, accessibility, inclusion, equity, and social justice in the communities we serve and engage throughout the world.
